FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
SAN DIEGO BALLET’S NUTCRacker

In honor of its 26th season performing in America’s Finest City, San Diego Ballet will perform The Nutcracker on December 26th and 27th, 2015.

November 4, 2015, San Diego, CA – What do you do when all the gifts have been opened, guests are still in town and you need to take a moment to sit down and enjoy some time with the family? It is the perfect time to come and enjoy San Diego’s namesake ballet company as they bring to life the timeless tale of Clara and her beloved nutcracker doll. Marvel as they take the audience on a fairy tale journey to the Land of Sweets, ruled by the iconic Sugar Plum Fairy.

San Diego Ballet will perform The Nutcracker on December 26th and 27th, 2015.

Andy Williams captures the true holiday spirit in his 1963 classic song, “It’s the Most Wonderful Time of the Year.” However, it can also be the busiest time of the year. Holiday parties to throw and attend, shopping for friends and family, gifts to wrap, cookies to bake, meals to prepare, and decorations to hang.

With so much happening leading up to the holidays, families don’t always have the time to enjoy the season. San Diego Ballet is the only professional ballet company to perform the holiday classic, The Nutcracker, the weekend right after Christmas and before the New Year festivities begin. This is usually a time when gifts have been opened, guests are still in town and families are searching for something to do.

San Diego Ballet will perform the Nutcracker at the Jacobs Music Center, formerly known as Copley Symphony Hall, in Downtown San Diego. First opened as Fox Theatre in 1929, this theatre is one of the oldest and most beautiful in San Diego, and the perfect venue to see this holiday classic.

Come see the best Nutcracker in San Diego on Saturday, December 26th at 7:30pm or Sunday, December 27th at 2:30pm.

San Diego Ballet features a talented and diverse group of professional dancers from all over the U.S. and other countries, including Russia, Japan, Mexico, Cuba, Korea and Spain. Celebrating 26 years, San Diego Ballet is dedicated to bringing the finest quality dance productions to San Diego ranging from classical ballets to original pieces found nowhere else. The 2015-16 Season is the most exciting yet.
